A S S O C I A T I O N

Offered by the
Hawai'i Hotel & Lodging Association

Administered by the
Hawaii Hotel Industry Foundation

Established in 1999

The R.W. Bob Holden Scholarship is a tribute to the continuing leadership in the hotel industry and dedication to education of those entering the industry as expressed by Bob Holden.

Students with the dedication and leadership potential to work toward the standards of excellence Bob Holden has set by his example are invited to apply for the Holden Scholarship.

R.W. "BOB" HOLDEN

R. W. "Bob" Holden has been an outstanding leader of the hospitality industry and active in furthering education in the lodging industry.

"Bob" Holden has been a licensed pilot, and avid sailor, a scratch golfer, a marathon runner, tennis player, musician and a third-generation hotelier. He was active with Colony Resorts.

He was the top Sheraton executive in the Pacific, served as senior vice president of the Sheraton Corporation and president of Sheraton Hotels in the Pacific, directing operations of hotels on the Mainland West Coast, in Hawaii and the Far East.

Born in Port Huron, Michigan, he grew up in the hotel business working in his family's inn and restaurant while attending high school and later joining his father in establishing a drive-in restaurant chain in Detroit.

Following an eight-year association with the Jack Tar Management Company, as senior vice president for operations, he joined Sheraton as vice president and general manager of the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington, D.C. and the director of national/international sales, and in 1969 he was named regional manager for Hawaii.

Despite the scope and demands of his operations and administrative work, Holden found time to serve in variety of community and civic endeavors.

"Bob" Holden was the founder of the Visitor Industry Education Council of Hawaii in 1973, a group formed to take the story of Hawaii's visitor industry and its importance to the citizens and general public of Hawaii. He was a member of the Advisory Council of the University of Hawaii TIM School, former director of the Waikiki Improvement Association and he is considered the "Father" of the Hawai`i Hotel & Lodging Association's Visitor Industry Charity Walk.

Other achievements include recipient of the Lodging Hospitality Magazine Hall of Fame Award, Meritorious Achievements Award from the N.A.A.C.P. and the 1978 Salesman of the Year Award from the Sales & Marketing Executives Club of Honolulu.
